

EMOZION_Arti

A spring and who knows how many seasons still without fairs and exhibitions, without those art events closed and denied indefinitely to prevent the spread of COVID19.

But the quarantine has certainly not blocked the artist's creativity and, with the usual technique and talent, the artists continue to produce works of art, to paint, sculpt, write, compose, photograph...., To go beyond the windows and balconies.

There are already many initiatives that we have given up in this difficult moment but we really want to take it and we do not want to deny ourselves any emotion or opportunity both to make ourselves known and to spread internationally artists and works in the first international edition of EMOZION_Arti.

Archi D'Arte organizes this virtual event involving personalities of art and culture; EMOZION_Arti will express itself and develop online and will keep the promise for the post-Coronavirus to make the project real.

The following will be published on the website and dedicated to the initiative: a gallery, containing one work per page, with paid contribution, the profile and contacts of the participating artists and anything else deemed appropriate; a color catalog.

You can participate with works of visual art, up to a maximum of 3 works per artist, or literary, with a maximum of 3 poems or 1 short story (maximum 4000 characters each), published online; the catalog will be printed on paper only on reservation and upon payment of only the actual costs per copy (to be defined). It should be noted that the printing will take place within the time allowed by the emergency for the coronavirus or when everything has returned to full normal.

Already forced into the home by the virus, both the theme and the artistic technique remain free for enjoyment and necessity, in addition to the dimensions, in the name of loose and independent creativity. Ditto with regard to poetic-literary participation with the exception of the dimension of short stories.

In addition to the catalog commented by experts in the artistic sector, downloadable in pdf, merit diplomas and prizes will be awarded which will be sent to the address provided by the artists at the time of registration.

Works, prizes and awards will be published on the dedicated website www.emozion-arti.eu.

The announcement, the form, the works, the catalog, the galleries, the reviews, the curiosities, the cards and also what the artists wish to spread, after examination by the Commission, will be published and downloadable in pdf.

The announcement, form and registration form are already published on: www.emozion-arti.it and www.emozion-arti.eu
